FANCY FRIDAY / BUYOUT / OCCASION SPECIFIC

OUR STYLE

In these instances, outfits must reflect a slightly more polished or refined version of the standard look (e.g., dress shirts, blouses, dark denim, neat slacks, dresses of appropriate length or smart footwear). The goal is to look sharp and confident, closer to the non-uniformed management standard, not more casual.

- All attire must remain conducive to movement, safety, and service in the Pub
- No restrictive or delicate fabrics that could interfere with work
- All other grooming, footwear, and presentation standards still apply
- Nametags must be worn and visible at all times
- If you are not participating, it's expected that you follow the uniformed guidelines
- Managers may welcome jerseys on occasion – they will communicate any appropriate days to wear these with the team
